New Union Plans Provide More Than Basic Facilities Recommended by Experts

If the three Student Union experts who visited the campus last fall were to return and examine the nearly completed plans, they would find that MSU's new Union will have more facilities than they felt necessary for a successful union.

The experts — R. C. Williams, University of Oregon; C. D. Owens, University of Washington; and Frank Noffke, Washington State College — recommended to the student government that the proposed Union-Commons merger be accepted. "The adjoining of the Union to the Commons is not only acceptable," said Williams, "but also very desirable."

The experts felt that the Union should be located on the east side of the Commons. As planned, it will be located on University avenue adjacent to the Commons. Among the facilities needed, the group felt were: A Coke store of 3,000 square feet which could serve 215 students at a time. It will have 6,000 square feet or twice as much space as recommended.

A lounge of approximately 1,600 square feet. There will be over 2,400 square feet of space allotted for this use. Additional space in the lobby and 200 feet of main desk bring this area to a total size of 4,800 square feet.

The experts recommend 1,050 square feet for five offices and a large workroom. The area will be 2,400 square feet in size, but a browsing room will be included in this area.

Where seven rooms, made through use of sliding doors, were recommended in an area of

Arnold Air Society Jumps Thirteen In Membership

Zemke Squadron of Arnold Air Society initiated 13 men into their organization on Jan. 21, says Don Erickson, Arnold Air Public Information officer.

Members of Arnold Air are selected on the basis of ROTC index, interest in the Air Force, and leadership ability.

The new initiates are Don Chaney, Livingston; Edward Cogswell, Great Falls; Hugh de Mers, St. Ignatius; John Earll, Great Falls; Roland Grotte, Northwood, North Dakota; Val Herman, Missoula; Robert Newlin, Lewistown; Charles Plowman, Joliet; Nohl Petersen, Tooele, Utah; Chuck Robbin, Bigfork; Fred Stout, Hamilton; Keith Terrell, Billings; and Tom Van Meter, Ogden, Utah.

Lt. Col. C. V. McCauley, guest speaker at the initiation, congratulated the new initiates.

A short business meeting was held after the initiation in which the squadron's participation in the Military Ball and the selection of delegates to the national Conclave in Ohio was discussed.

Initiation Speeches At Law Luncheon

Speeches by the new pledges of Phi Delta Phi will be the main feature of their weekly luncheon in the Bitterroot room of the Student Union this noon.

Five of the new pledges: Al Slight, Missoula; Bill Hunt, Missoula; Marshall Murray, Kalispell; Howard Hebert, Missoula; and C. J. Hansen, Missoula, will deliver ten minute speeches on some phase of law. These speeches are required to be given by every pledge before initiation into the group. The faculty of the law school has been invited to attend as guests of the organization, according to Jim Reid, president.

Tom Mahon is a new pledge bringing the total of new pledges for this year to 14. Nine of these are freshmen.

Custodian Wins Felony Dismissal

County Attorney Robert W. O'Donovan announced Saturday the dismissal of felony charges against William Toner, former custodian at the Natural Science building at MSU.

Toner was convicted and sentenced April 7 to a term of 18 years in the state penitentiary. November 25, the Montana supreme court reversed the decision and sent the case back for re-trial. Grounds for reversal were improper handling of the case by the county attorney and the district judge.

O'Donovan moved for dismissal after investigation of the two witnesses against Toner showed one of them to be mentally retarded and the other has been committed to the state hospital at Warm Springs.

Group Will Study Social Standards

Appointment of board members to study the social standard question will be made this afternoon at 4 p.m. at the weekly meeting of Central Board in the Eloise Knowles room of the Student Union, according to Norm Anderson, ASMSU president.

Among the other items to be acted on by the board are the refusal of Louis Armstrong's band, the consideration of Buddy Morrow's band, a report on the ice carnival, the report of Budget and Finance on the all school show, and discussion of revisions in the constitution.

Balladeers to Give Concert Tonight; Cut Rates Available

International balladeers, Josef Marais and Miranda, will present a concert of South African, American-Dutch, Flemish, Scottish, and American folk songs tonight at 8:15 in the Wilma theater.

Special student tickets are still available at the box office for those who have student movie cards, says Edward Sharp, Wilma theater manager. Dress will be semi-formal—cocktail dresses and suits.

The South African-born composer and his wife, Miranda, have appeared on Red Skelton's TV show, the Ford Hour, the Standard Hour, We the People, and the Meredith Wilson show.

They began as a team in 1947 singing African veld songs to New York nightclub audiences, and since then they have performed in 40 of the 48 states and have broadcast and recorded more than 200 songs.

Two of their best known songs are "Sugarbush," which means sweetie pie in Afrikaans, and "A-Round the Corner." Their most recent recording is a Columbia album entitled "Veld Songs for Children."

This concert is the second in a series of four programs, which included Jan Peerce, Marian Anderson and the American Piano Trio are still to appear.

Since No Compromise Seen New Show May Be Answer

BY RAY MOHOLT

Budget and Finance last night held to their original 11-point agreement giving the All-School show, "Die Fledermaus," a top guarantee of $2,100. Central Board will discuss further action this afternoon at 4 p.m.

When the directors of the proposed All-School show read their prepared statement to the board, Budget and Finance chairman Peder Hoiness said, "Well, I guess that ends the meeting."

Show Men Say—

Considering the 30 per cent cut in Central Board's budget for this year's All-School show, and the rise in prices over those of two years ago, it will not be possible to give the outstanding light opera which has been under rehearsal for the past few months and which was tentatively selected for this year's production.

The goal of the directors of the All School show is to present a work worthy of the traditions of the university. Therefore it seems necessary to find a new vehicle for this year's presentation that will fit into the drastically reduced budget.

We are therefore investigating a substitute work that can be produced for the amount of money available.

B-F Members Say—

We the members of Budget and Finance committee, after due deliberation with the parties concerned, regret the inability to reach an agreement for the presentation of "Die Fledermaus."

Considering the fact that ASMSU is operating on a limited budget, we feel that our original recommendation should not be altered without further directive from Central Board.

AKP Meets for Speech, Pledging

Initiation of pledges and an address on the stock market will feature the main part of the annual banquet of Alpha Kappa Psi, national business honorary, tonight at 5:30 at the Pines.

J. Sherman Wertz, member of the stock exchange firm of J. A. Hogle & Co. will discuss the stock market and what type of future it offers as a career. Dean Smith will welcome the new initiates on behalf of the active chapter.

Members who need rides are asked to be at the Business-Education building at 5:15 p.m.

Do Class Officers Need . . .

A Guiding Hand?

The freshman class this year has disproved the complaint that classes and class officers are inactive. This class has proved that, as a group, they can be active and well coordinated. Both fall and winter quarters the frosh have had successful group projects.

Fall quarter they had a barbeque in the Jumbo lot and a dance in the Student Union. Last Saturday night they had a mixer "Manhattan Sernade" in the Fish Bowl. They were backed by ASMSU and the slight loss incurred will be paid by ASMSU.

The Freshmen Say Yes!

Although these functions have been successful, it is the belief of the freshman class officers that many parts of the planning of these projects could have been more efficiently carried out if they had a regular advisor to consult on protocol.

The transition from high school to college is attempted in the Orientation Week program, but in the department of leadership they feel that orientation is completely lacking.

Through the fall quarter further adjustment to college life is attempted. Most class officers don't feel they have the time to spend on class projects—this year the frosh took the time and they used it successfully.

Someone Who Knows the Ropes . . .

The only trouble is that next year's freshmen officers might not be as efficient as the present. If there was a class advisor for each entering class a project could be set up from the first of the freshman year.

The present freshmen class has proved that class projects will work, but will future officers be as ambitious?—K.J.B.

Grad Student Takes 'Goose Census,' Trades Stuff Lab for Telescope

BY ANN THOMSON

Even geese are now included in census taking. In fact, Mary Barraclough, graduate student from Durham, N. H., spent nine months of last year counting and studying nests, eggs, goslings, and full-grown geese on Flathead lake.

Her study was concerned with the great basin Canada goose population in the Flathead lake and river area, and will be used by the state in determining hunting regulations and game preserves.

A graduate of Smith college, Miss Barraclough worked for the Massachusetts Audubon society and the National Park service for five years before coming to MSU to work on her master's degree.

Through the fellowship granted to her by MSU, she spent three-quarters of last year at the State Biological station on Flathead lake, taking a goose census of the area.

The great basin Canada goose she studied is the only one which breeds in the U. S. Those in the Flathead lake area are a fairly permanent population. Most of the birds stay in the Flathead lake or river, and Pablo or Ninepipe reservoir areas. Last January the number of geese counted on the lower lake area totaled 1,250.

Geese have always been seen in the Flathead area throughout the year, but the fact that there is a permanent population was not known until Miss Barraclough proved it by her banding program.

Much of her study was put in graph and chart form for exhibition at the biological station last summer. To this exhibit material she plans to add her fall findings on the number of geese killed and other data she obtained by interviewing hunters.

Miss Barraclough wanted to do a field problem for her master's degree because, as she says, "I didn't want to sit in a lab and peer through a microscope all day." She certainly got her wish, in fact the only 'scope she used was a telescope to help get a surer bird count.

New SU Interior Plans To Begin When Finals Seen

During a meeting Monday of the Student Union Executive board Bev Praetz, Chinook, reported that the New Union committee would begin on the interior decorating as soon as she saw the final plans.

The Student Union dance committee is sponsoring a dance in the Gold room Friday evening. Dancing will be to records from 8 to 12 p.m. Lou Marilyn Vierhus, Coalinga, Calif., is in charge of getting chaperones for the dance.

Charles Peterson, 72-year-old World Famous Billiard Champion, will appear in the Student Union game room Feb. 17 and 18. Adults will be charged $.50 and students $.25.

Tom Van Meter, Ogden, Utah, president of the Student Union, reported that nothing definite has been decided about remodeling the make-up room.

Need Licenses, Says Ziesemer

E. W. Ziesemer, Justice of the Peace, issued a warning Saturday to university students who are driving automobiles without valid Montana drivers' licenses. He also said that many students driving cars with out-of-state license tags should have Montana plates.

Judge Ziesemer explained that any person who lists a Montana address as a temporary or permanent residence must have a Montana driver's license. This includes all MSU students.

Fines up to $10 for the first offense may be imposed for violators, Judge Ziesemer said, who have been in Montana for long periods of time. The usual fine is $5.

As for the use of out-of-state license tags, Judge Ziesemer said that as long as the person owning the car does not work, Montana plates are not necessary. If, however, the owner does have a paying job, he is required by law to purchase Montana license plates. Fines may be imposed up to $50 and 10 days for second and third offenses.

Education, No Names, PSK, Oddballs Grab I-M Hoop Wins

An overtime game between Phi Sigma Kappa and the Deacons featured Monday night's intramural basketball play. PSK pulled away in the extra period to win, 53-48. Neil Eliason led the PSK with 14 points; Gary Mitcheson scored 9 for the Deacons.

In the other close game, No Names downed South Hall 39-28. No Names scored 12 points to two in the last quarter to garner the victory. Ron VanHee dumped in 14 points to top the No Names' scorers; Charles Angel made nine for South Hall.

In the other games, the Education Club romped over Kappa Psi, 51-30, and Oddballs dropped Geology 42-24. Scoring 20 for the night's high score was Education Club's Walter Gerson. Rudy Stoll had 7 for Kappi Psi, Lee Bayley had seven for Oddballs, and Durwood Johnson scored eight to pace the Geologists.

Girl Hoop-Tossers Enter Third Week Of I-M Go-Round

Women's basketball round-robin went into its third week Monday with wins by forfeit for the Independents and for North. Kappa Kappa Gamma forfeited to the Independent team and Kappa Alpha Theta to North.

Tuesday afternoon New Hall won over Delta Gamma 27 to 13 and Alpha Phi and Corbin hall tied 21 to 21.

Last week Corbin hall and Sigma Kappa were victors in games played Thursday and Friday. Corbin won by a default of the Kappa Alpha Theta team and Sigma Kappa beat Alpha Phi 38 to 17.

Wednesday, Kappa Kappa Gamma will play Kappa Alpha Theta at 4:15 p.m. and Sigma Kappa will play Delta Delta Delta at 5 p.m.

Intraural News—

Prospective Intramural ski team rosters should be turned into the Phys-Ed office of the men's gym by 4 p.m. Thursday, according to George Cross, Intramural director.

The maximum number of participants allowed on a team roster is five and the minimum is three. Each roster can include two alternates.

Opponents' Corner

By J. D. COLEMAN

This week the two strongest Skyline cage squads come to Missoula. The Colorado Aggies playing in the Field House Thursday night, and the Wyoming Cowpokes, whom the Grizzlies have never defeated in basketball or football, Saturday night. The Cubs will play preliminaries to both games against the Fox Block Independents.

—O—

Both the Rams and the Cowpokes are undefeated in Skyline play, but have dropped several to powerful interconference rivals. The Rams are big and fast, strong both offensively and defensively. They have the second highest conference game average with 69.4, and the strongest defensive team in the Skyline, allowing the least average number of points to opponents, 54.4. The Rams also lead in taking rebounds with 199. A good tall club, they are paced by 6 foot-7 inch Dennis Steuhm, Gary Hibbard, 6-foot-6 inches; and Ron Caylor, 6-foot-4 inches.

—O—

Wyoming is even taller and rangier than the Rams, they have the best field goal average in the Skyline with .365 and an average of 68.8 points a game. The Cowpokes are also second in defense, allowing only 55.8 points a game. The Cowboys are paced by all-conference center Ron Rivers, all-conference guard Bill Sharp, for-

Injuries Plague Grizzlies On Weekend Road Trip; Prospects Dim This Week

Montana Grizzlies took another one on the chin Monday night as they dropped an 87-62 decision to the Idaho State Bengals at Pocatello. It was the third loss in as many starts for the Grizzlies, who lost over the weekend to Brigham Young and Utah University.

In the Idaho State tilt, three injuries slowed the determined Silvertips. Frank Nickel was carried from the floor on a stretcher early in the third period, Ed Bergquist left the game later with a badly sprained ankle, and Ed Anderson didn't play at all, having suffered an ankle injury two days previous.

Coach "Jiggs" Dahlberg said, "we were very much in the game until Nickel got hurt, but I think the injury had some effect on the boys." "We got another bad break when Ritch Johnson picked up his fourth foul and had to sit out part of the game, after being the spark-plug while he was in there."

For the Bengal contest, Dahlberg changed his starting line-up, ward Jay Mulvehall, and forward Harry Jorgenson.

using Nickel, Bergquist, Johnson, Ed Argenbright and Jack Coppedge.

Referring to the games Thursday night with Colorado A&M and Saturday with Wyoming, Dahlberg said, "Anderson, Bergquist and Nickel probably won't be ready but the rest of them should be in good shape."

Concerning rushing . . . here's an oldie by a writer for the Buffalo Spectator on six reasons "Why I Never Joined a Sorority." They are:

"1. I wanted to do as I wished instead of being led around by a bunch of sorority sisters.

"2. I had never gone into women's clubs and organizations before I came to college and I didn't want to start.

"3. I had never danced with a man in my life and didn't want to.

Heavy traffic on the Berkeley campus—survey by an enterprising reporter showed that three dogs, 14,798 students, and 96 professors a day pass through the door of one of their most popular buildings. When the central door gave up and failed to function, the statisticians put their heads together and decided that four and one-half dogs, 17,623 students, and 177 professors would use the remaining entrances daily. That's nice . . . now, what does it prove???

Who would ever have thought that cabbage was worth $200? Seems a painting entitled "The Cabbage Patch" painted by a professor at San Jose State college was stolen from the college campus recently. The painting was valued at $200 with a description as follows . . . field of red cabbage with barns, houses and church steeples in the background . . . Finder of said picture has been asked to return the stolen article to the campus.

lake at all, but a mud puddle. Dimensions of the puddle are 50 feet long, 15 across and two feet deep, so you can see, that it's more than just a drop in the bucket.

Sounds of struggle came from within the parked car. "Sir," said a female voice, "where is your chivalry?" A pause. "I traded it in on this Buick."

Tired of Name, Seeking New One

The club, formerly known as the History and Political Science Club grew tired of its name and is seeking a new one.

It meets tonight at 7:30 p.m. in the Liberal Arts 307 to select a new "handle," according to Ellis L. Waldron, assistant professor of political science and faculty adviser of the club.

Plans for a series of programs which will help acquaint students with professional and vocational opportunities in the fields of history and political science will be discussed. Waldron said the club will also work to adopt a charter.

IT'S ALL A MATTER OF TASTE

I've tried so many cigarettes,
All brands from A to Z—
But nothing beats that better taste—
It's Lucky Strike for me!

Charlene Bernstein
State University of Iowa

When you come right down to it, you smoke for one simple reason . . . enjoyment. And smoking enjoyment is all a matter of taste. Yes, taste is what counts in a cigarette. And Luckies taste better.

Two facts explain why Luckies taste better. First, L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike means fine tobacco . . . light, mild, good-tasting tobacco. Second, Luckies are actually made better to taste better . . . always round, firm, fully packed to draw freely and smoke evenly.

So, for the enjoyment you get from better taste, and only from better taste, Be Happy—Go Lucky. Get a pack or a carton of better-tasting Luckies today.

If you're the kind of guy that hates
To see his money partin',
Here's a tip to save you dough:
Buy Luckies by the carton!

Where's your jingle?

It's easier than you think to make $25 by writing a Lucky Strike jingle like those you see in this ad. Yes, we need jingles—and we pay $25 for every one we use! So send as many as you like to: Happy-Go-Lucky, P. O. Box 67, New York 46, N. Y.

In all the campus coffee shops
Where students congregate,
You'll hear this oft-repeated phrase:
"Smoke Luckies—they taste great!"
